Theology and Ethics

RTCH 900 Teaching in Higher ED This study focuses on teaching an academic level. Students are challenged to learn to teach any age group on any subject matter.

THEO 900 Systematic Theology This study deals specifically with the being, attributes and works of God.

THEO 904: The Kingdom of God (Doctrine of Salvation) This module focuses upon the central message of Jesus' teaching, the Kingdom of God to impact the life of personal discipleship and ministry. First, we study God's reign challenged as the sovereign majesty through the rebellion of his subjects. Next, we explore God's inauguration of his kingdom through his covenant promise to bring shalom. We then examine God's reign being proclaimed throughout the world by his Church and finally, the consummation of the Kingdom at the Second Coming of Jesus.

Apologetics

APOL: God the Father (Paterology) The study of the person of our God, the Father Almighty, is one of the most important and richest of all studies in the Word of God, and therefore affects every part of our discipleship, worship, and ministry. First, we briefly explore the first things, the prolegomena, which under girds a study of theology, looking at the necessity of God revealing himself to us. Next, we examine God's supreme authority and providence over all creation and history. We look at the biblical evidence for the Trinity, and finally, at the goodness and severity of God.

APOL-010: God the Son (Christology) This module highlights Jesus of Nazareth's majestic person and deeds, arguably the most critical subject in all Christian reflection and ministry. First, we explore the humanity of Christ. Then, we explore the theological implications of Jesus' humiliation and death, his descent in his divine person on our behalf. Finally, we consider the various aspects and implications of resurrection and ascension, and end by looking at Christ's return.

APOL-014: God the Holy Spirit (Pneumatology) The doctrine of the Holy Spirit lies at the very heart of the way we understand who God is and how we experience his living presence in our midst. First, we explore the biblical portrayal of the Spirit as a divine person who both is God and consciously acts as God. Next, we explore the nature of prophetic revelation in inspiring and illuminating the Word of God. Then, we see the power of the Holy Spirit in the lives of those who repent and believe, and in enabling the Church to fulfill its mission in the world.

Christian Ministry

CMIN-002: Theology of the Church The church is called to represent Christ in the earth and bear witness of his already/not yet Kingdom. First, we focus on how the Church is foreshadowed in God's exalted purpose to bring glory to himself by saving a new humanity through his covenant with Abraham. Next, we consider salvation as the foundation of the Church's worship. Then, we focus on the mission of the Church and finally, we discover the various dimensions and elements of the Church, including marks of authentic Christian community and biblical images of the church.

CMIN-007: Foundations of Christian Leadership This module highlights the various roles and offices associated with this high and important task in the Kingdom of God. First, we probe the foundations of Christian leadership as it relates to the offices and functions of leadership in the local church, particularly that of Apostle and Prophet. Next, we trace the notion of Prophet from its OT root in the tribal system and synagogue, to the Sanhedrin, and to the NT Church. We outline the biblical context of the idea of the pastorate. Finally, we provide a broad definition and overview to this dynamic concept of bishop or overseer and the evangelical movement.

Foundational Leaders

U2-004: Prophetic Heritage This module will help you understand the role and responsibility of today's Prophets. First, we examine three biblical frameworks of the office by looking at the Function. Then, we turn our attention to the object of mission and how God positioned the prophet to work in the OT. Finally, we examine the concept of the Partnership between the Apostle and Prophet.

U2-605: Shamar Prophet In this module, we explore the origins and meaning of serving as a Shamar. We will look at it from the perspective of Prophetic Warfare, Prophetic Intercession, and Governmental Authority.

U2-603: Moving in Activation In this module, students begin to move in the realm of prophetic activation. The focus is on interpreting dreams and visions, moving in prophetic worship, and releasing prophetic decrees. Final stage is affirmation.

Lead-700: The Apostolic Office In this module, we begin to explore the Apostolic office from a place of building and its function as a governing authority over the church. We understand that the Apostle is equivalent to the Ox in that both have been called to plow the field in preparation for planting a harvest.
